

Sharing Your Story Resources & References

References:

Parents as Presenters: Workshop Participant Guide. Pennsylvania Natural Allies, Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare. 2005. <http://www.center-school.org/sknsoc/documents/parentsaspresentershandbook1.pdf>

Special Quest Multimedia Training Library: Supporting Infants and Toddlers with Disabilities and Their Families in Inclusive Settings. The Hilton/Early Head Start Training Program. California Institute on Human Services, Sonoma State University. 2007. http://www.specialquest.org/sqtm/fullvolume/v3_complete.pdf

Resources:

www.specialquest.org

Special Quest Birth-Five: Head Start/Hilton Foundation Training Program. This site offers a lot of great resources, including an archive of family stories:

<http://76.249.171.46/specialquest/sqo/stories/search.lasso>

PEAC Workshop Facilitation and Presentation Skills Module

(available at www.paedforall.org) This module was designed to train our Parent Consultants on providing workshops and presentations. It contains excellent tips and information on how to be an effective speaker.

Parents as Presenters: Workshop Participant Guide. Pennsylvania Natural Allies, Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare. 2005. <http://www.center-school.org/sknsoc/documents/parentsaspresentershandbook1.pdf>

Train the Trainer: Participant's Guide. Produced for the Department of Human Services by Therapeutic Concepts, Inc.